OUR REF :

Date: Tuesday, 12th September 2017

To : The Parents of students from Years 10, 11, 12 and 13- SAT COACHING

Dear Parents

Greetings from St. Mary's Catholic High School Dubai! We are pleased to inform you that our SAT preparatory classes will begin in the coming weeks. Before we begin the classes, we would like to provide an orientation session of what to expect of the classes for both the parents and students of years 10, 11, 12 and 13. This will enable you to have a better understanding of how the classes will be conducted and what can be expected from the classes. In addition there will be a brief overview of application to universities abroad. ACT coaching classes can also be provided if the student wishes to pursue the same.

The orientation session will be conducted on Thursday the 14th of September 2017 during the break time from 9:50 am to 10:30 am. (For those parents and students who are interested)

SAT/ACT are some of the major admission exams that is used to admit students to colleges in the US, Singapore and a few prestigious colleges in India. Most colleges in the US will accept the SAT or the ACT standardized test scores. The programmes will be conducted twice a week. A schedule will be provided for students who sign up to take the classes. This will prepare the students for the December and January SAT exams and ACT test in December and February.

The course will be conducted by THE PRINCETON REVIEW/SCORE PLUS. TPR is an American-based standardized test preparation and admission consulting headquarters in Boston, MA. USA. It is the world's leading test preparation service provider for SAT.

Following the orientation program, you will have an opportunity to express your interest in the program and based on the feedback we receive, the classes will be scheduled.

Yours sincerely

Mr. Paul Asir Joseph
Principal
