To : Parents of students from Year One to Year Thirteen : FIRST TERM EXAMINATION TIME TABLES

FIRST TERM EXAMINATIONS :Please note that during the examinations (for years one through ten),the day will continue as a school day after the day's exams and students will be encouraged to actively revise for the next exam and complete any practice work or revision as part of that preparation. We would like to remind all parents that as per KHDA policy all schools are mandated to complete a certain number of instructional days in the academic year (which do not include examination days) and hence we trust that you will understand that we have tried our best to balance out the timetable with the best interests of the children as a priority. However if any year group has an indication of the timetable of 'No exams/no lessons' on a particular day, then they must remain at home on that day. In case of any absence during the exams , kindly send the medical certificate to the Principal's secretary through your child when he/she returns to school after the period of absence. Students in years 11, 12 and 13 need to come to school only on the days that they have exams and may leave school once their exams for the day are done. Students in years 11, 12 and 13 are reminded to be in school by 7:10 am sharp for a morning session paper and at 10:00 am sharp if they have only a second session examination.

We wish all our students the best of luck for their examinations and we trust that they will use their time for revision carefully and wisely.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Paul Asir Joseph
(Principal)
