- Define breaking news
- understand why individuals and news outlets want to be first to report a story.
- Understand main facts and opinions
- Understand the purpose of the news
- Review synonyms

SUCCESS CRITERIA: I can

- Understand what is 'breaking news'
- Infer the researched information from key words and phrases
- infer main facts and opinions
- interpret purpose of news
- Express relevant views about the current situation around the world
- ask questions and clarify my doubts
- listen to others' response and make notes

INSTRUCTIONS

- refer to annotations and the notes you have made
- in your NOTEBOOK, make notes of teacher's explanation of meanings and ideas.
- Your notes will help to answer question posted in Google Classroom.

TEACHING ACTIVITY 2 –

- Explain that you said "I'll call on the first hand I see" because wanting to be first is a big part of breaking news.
Q. Have you ever wanted to be the first one to tell someone something or share something online?
- Invite students to respond and explain that there are many reasons individuals and news outlets want to be first.
Q. Why do people want to be first to report something?
- students to fill in the given table making notes in their notebooks
- Project Slide 4 -

What are the benefits of being the first to "break" news?

For Individuals

For News Outlets

Possible responses – Individuals

- Gain more followers, "likes," and shares
- Be viewed as important or more knowledgeable
- Excitement of the moment; being in the know

Possible responses – News Outlets

- Have more Viewers/Readers
- Make more money because of higher ratings/more advertisers
- Be well-known or famous
- A reporter wanting to be promoted or gain recognition

- Project Slide 4 and explain that because of technology and everyone being connected all the time, being first means actually reporting something as it's happening or at least right after.
This creates the 24/7 news cycle, which refers to 24-hour, seven-day-a-week investigating and reporting of news via television, radio, print, online, and mobile app devices.
News outlets are battling to report the news first, which means we get news faster, but it also means we have to be more careful about making sure news is accurate.

ACTIVITY: BREAKING DOWN BREAKING NEWS

The screenshot shows three news alerts side-by-side. The first is from Metro News, 25 minutes ago, with the headline 'Breaking News: Skatepark Closure'. The text below reads: 'Meeting agenda indicates Common Sense City Council in secret meetings to close skatepark. Will local skaters be left hanging? Officials have not yet been reached for comment.' The second alert is from Sam T, 19 minutes ago, with a profile picture. The text reads: 'My uncle works for the parks department. He says skateparks cost a lot to maintain. He said the park will reopen but he thinks the city will start charging an admission fee.' Below this is a 'Like' button and a 'Comment' button, with a comment from 'That's not fair!' and a sad face emoji. The third alert is from My Rights @MyRights, 10 minutes ago. The text reads: 'Skateparks are the latest casualty in a community that doesn't value the outdoors. Here we go again!! Remember the rock wall!! What about our rights???' Below this is a photo of a person climbing a rock wall. At the bottom of the third alert, it says 'City council cites traffic concerns in "No" vote for downtown rock climbing wall' and 'Metronewsonline.com, 11/20/2011'.

- Students are going to first focus: Skatepark Story.
- Annotate vocabulary; language and structural features

Metro News Update: Skatepark to Remain

By Muriel Ryder, Metro News

Updated at 6:36 p.m. on Friday, August 20

Metro City (Metro News)—The Common Sense City Council shared changes last night in the construction plan for the 14th Street Skatepark. A leaked copy of the meeting agenda had park users fearing permanent closure. Last night's announcement clarified that the park would be temporarily closed from March to July while repairs are made to the facility.

"These repairs are part of our city's ongoing commitment to ensure safe spaces for our citizens to enjoy the outdoors," explained Raya Knox, parks commissioner. Knox confirmed that the park would not be expanded for at least two years due to budget shortfalls. "While we are not able to expand the park at this time, we are still dedicated to maintaining a free facility for our users." Knox also noted the city's commitment to outdoor activities, including the miles of bike and walking paths the city has added over the last three years.

- Explain that although it can be hard to tell whether a breaking news story is missing something, there are a few things you can look for.

TEACHING ACTIVITY 2

- Project Slide 7 and review the callouts.

ACTIVITY: BREAKING DOWN BREAKING NEWS

Alert No. 1 uses words and phrases that show there's likely more information to come.

Alerts No. 2 and 3 are not from established news organizations. News organizations follow professional standards and practices to verify news reports and make corrections when they get facts wrong.

Alert No. 3 is presenting the story in a particular way, as if it is connected to something that happened several years before. The author of this post wants people to believe that their rights are being taken away. This is an example of bias.

Breaking News: Concert Cancelled

The Summer Fest concert scheduled to take place at the county fairgrounds tomorrow has been cancelled.

 summer_Sings14

summer_Sings14

I loved Summer Fest last year. I can't believe it's cancelled!!! I just heard we probably won't get a refund because the ticket form says they only refund for bad weather!!!!!! 😞

1. Based on the news alerts, what is likely happening with the concert? Why?

It seems like it is likely cancelled, since it was reported by two credible sources, metro news and the place that was hosting the concert. It seems like they are giving refunds to people who had the tickets.

2. What clues do you see in the alerts that might indicate incomplete or inaccurate information?
In alert No.1, someone added a comment that the concert wasn't really going to be canceled.
For alert No.3, which says there aren't refunds, the source is a social media post, which may not be credible.
3. If you had tickets for the concert and saw these alerts, what should you do?
You should hold off on reacting until you have the full story. One person said the concert wasn't canceled, so you could try to find another source to verify that. Same with whether there are refunds.
4. Read the following lines: 'We are sorry for the inconvenience'. Identify the sentence structure and explain how it engages the reader.
Simple sentence
5. What is the purpose of the colon in the title 'Breaking News: Concert Cancelled'
The colon is used to indicate that what follows it is an explanation or elaboration of what precedes it- explains what the breaking news is.
6. Read text three. Identify an example of an adverb and explain the purpose.
Probably- Probably is used to show uncertainty; you're not certain enough to say it definitely will.
7. Why do you think it's important to get the full story before reacting to or sharing breaking news?
Causes people to make choices based on incorrect or incomplete information.
Confuses people. Creates unnecessary arguments or divides people over issues.
Blurs the lines of truth and falsehood

LESSON 5 - ASSESSMENT

LEARNING OBJECTIVES :

- To read carefully and understand the question
- To read and understand the purpose of the text
- To infer key ideas from words and phrases in the text
- To explore language and structural features used by the writer

SUCCESS CRITERIA

I can

- Interpret the question and respond appropriately
- infer key ideas from the text
- identify specific words and phrases which are effective in a text and explain why they are effective.
- Analyse language and presentational features
