Read the chapter and understand:

Islam called for working as its dignity for man

- Enables man to avoid the humility of begging
- Provides necessary material needs for the individual and the family (ex., Housing, food etc.)
- Working increases productivity
- Opportunities for more business and organizations
- Raises the standard of living
- Achieves social well being

Allah made us a moderate nation in terms of faith and legislation

Answer some questions:

What is the type of work I do?

Should I not do my best in my studies?

How will I apply what I have learnt?

How can I make my study a righteous work for which I get rewarded?

What can make my work rewarded By Allah?

What are my goals to near Allah?

How do I check on my activities?
