

ISLAMIC STUDIES “B”

YEAR 7 E& F

WEEK 25 (14th Feb to 18th Feb)

Work to be Send to the students through Google classroom

Unit 6 Lesson 2

Topic: Lessons to be learned (Surah al Mulk 25-30)

L.O:

- To recite the verses while observing the rules of recitation.
- Explain the meaning of Qur’anic vocabulary.
- Explain the overall meaning of the verses.
- Infer the connection between faith and having trust in Allah

Success Criteria:

- Explain the overall meaning of the verses.
- Infer the connection between faith and having trust in Allah

Monday 2 nd period (Boys & Girls)	Starter: PPT Quran: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1zi5TajNuPcIkhfa Understand that : The ultimate goal of our existence is the Hereafter. So the remembrance of death should be a motivator for you to do the best you can, while you can. Always strive for the best of both worlds – don’t deny or forget one for the other. Action Points (Your to – do) Assess the quality of your deeds always [check yourself]. Be humble because your entire life is a test; and a humbling reality. Take out time to reflect constantly – you have so much
--	---

	around you and within you to ponder over. Such reflections will serve to motivate you in life. Ask Allah without reserve. Seek His mercy and aid knowing He is the ultimate source of all good. He is your army to assist you in the face of all problems and to sustain you. Surat AI-Mulk Ayyah 21-22
Thursday – 7th period (Boys & Girls)	Google Classroom: Finally... Use your human strength and capabilities to work hard in this dunya with the understanding that it is only temporary; accountability lies ahead and you can't escape it so prepare ahead. Start by building an Islamic personality using lessons and reflections from the Quran. Complete textbook questions and activities Recitation Surat AI-Mulk Ayyah 21-22