proudly presents

World Book Day 2025

Ladies & Gentlemen... Boys & Girls ..It's time to let your imagination wild! Dive into your closet and reimagine the clothes you have, (Can that saree double as a toga? Could dad's long jacket be the perfect wizard's robe? Can two baseball caps make a deerstalker? The possibilities are endless!) Or if you are crafty, get to work cutting and pasting your way into an awesome armor, maybe? And don't forget the power of makeup!

Coz it's time to... "Dress Up!"

On the occasion of

WORLD
BOOK DAY

2025

Inviting everyone, students and staff alike, to come dressed as their favorite literary character/author on

Wednesday, the 23rd April 2025

Let's get creative!

Certificates and prizes to be won if you can impress the judges!

We will be on the lookout for the best costumes. You should also brush up on literary trivia for a chance to win spot prizes! Years 1-4 will have a BookSwap. Guidelines to follow from the class teachers.

Parents please note:

- All the instructions and guidelines for colored clothes day apply for this day as well.
- Costumes must be inspired by literary characters/authors.
- Costumes should be respectful, modest and appropriate.
