

Eduscan Institute, founded by renowned Educational Psychologist Dr. Alka Kalra, has collaborated with Khaleej Times to launch the UAE Talent Hunt for Children of Determination. This initiative aims to provide an inclusive platform for children to showcase their unique abilities, build confidence, and celebrate their talents at a national level.

All entries will be reviewed by the Khaleej Times Talent Hunt Committee, and selected participants will be featured in Young Times, a special supplement of Khaleej Times.

Additionally, all participants will be recognised, and winning individuals will get the opportunity to perform live on stage during the grand finale of the Sambhaavana Carnival.

Talent Categories include (but are not limited to):

- Singing
- Dancing
- Acting
- Art & Creativity
- Sports / Martial Arts
- Any other extraordinary talent

Grand Finale Venue: Museum of the Future, Dubai
Date: Saturday, 31st January 2026

Submission Guidelines:

- Create a video showcasing your child's exceptional talent
- Video duration: 2–3 minutes
- Include visuals such as art & craft, drawings, performances, or any representation of the child's skills (only within the video)
- Participation is open to individuals only
- Name the video file using your child's name
- Last date for submission: Saturday, 10th January 2026

- Special Requirement – Year of the Family 2026

To honor the spirit of family togetherness, we request that:

- The whole family will be featured, or
- At least one family member participates creatively in the video

Examples:

- Playing music or dancing alongside the child
- Assisting or supporting during drawing/painting activities
- Clapping, keeping rhythm, or contributing creatively without overshadowing the child's performance

This initiative focuses on participation, encouragement, and celebration. Every participant is a winner, and involvement truly matters.
