YEAR 6 - Art First Term Examination 2026-2027

Theme: Art Connects Culture, Inspires Change

Main Objective:

Explore how art can celebrate cultural identity, connect people, and inspire positive change by creating an original artwork that communicates a meaningful cultural or social message.

Examination Task:

Art can tell stories about who we are, where we come from, and what we care about. It can bring people together and encourage positive changes in our world.

Create an artwork that shows how art can connect people through culture and inspire positive change.

You may choose one of the following ideas:

1. Celebrating Culture

Create an artwork showing cultural traditions, clothing, celebrations, architecture, music, food, or patterns.

2. We Are Connected

Show people from different cultures coming together through friendship, art, music, or celebration.

3. Art for a Better World

Create artwork showing how art can encourage people to protect nature, care for others, reduce waste, or make positive choices.

4. My Culture, My Pride

Create an artwork celebrating the culture and heritage of the UAE or another culture that inspires you.

Students should combine cultural elements with their own creative ideas rather than simply copying traditional designs.

Instructions:

- Materials to be used: A4 size of paper, Oil Pastel or Crayons, Colour Pencils or Sketch Pens, Pencil, Eraser, Sharpener and Ruler

- In an A4 size of paper draw an artwork showing your knowledge about the theme.
- Explore your imagination and creativity.
- Outline your drawing with black marker and colour it neatly. You may use different techniques and skills in colouring.
